Presidential Correspondence
Room 45
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mrs. Mackey:

My daughter Carla, now 17, is an ardent supporter of President Reagan and has written him several times over the years. On one occasion you were extremely kind to bring her letter to the President's personal attention and he was incredibly gracious in responding and sending along an autographed photo.

I don't ask for such generous treatment again, but since the subject of her enclosed letter is such an important one--the Wallenberg case, about which she has written before--we do hope the appropriate White House and/or State Department officials will consider the matter in light of the imminent Gorbachev visit. (Carla wrote the letter last week and it sat on my desk until the Rosenthal piece in today's New York Times reminded me to forward it.)

Thanks again for all your courtesies, and best wishes for the holidays.

Sincerely,

Joseph A. Bosco
